

Debasis Chatterjee

B.Sc(Hons.), M.Sc, PGDEn, DIH

Senior Research Officer & Hygiene Department in-charge

Department of Occupational Hygiene

Email id:- chatterjeedebasis7@hotmail.com

Shri Debasis Chatterjee was born and brought up in Kolkata West Bengal. He had his primary and secondary schooling from Don Bosco School, Park Circus, Kolkata and his intermediate schooling from Assembly of God Church School, Park Street, Kolkata. He completed his graduation in B.Sc. Physiology Hons. with Physics and Chemistry as pass subjects from Presidency College, Kolkata. He did his Post graduation in M.Sc. Physiology with Work Physiology and Ergonomics specialization from University College of Science, Agriculture & Technology, Rajabazar, Kolkata. After completing his post graduation Shri Chatterjee simultaneously worked in Optimal Computing Private Limited as a Medical transcription shift supervisor and studied in Public System Management in environment management in Indian Institute of Social Welfare and Business Management (IISWBM). Beside these he was part time lecturer in Biology for intermediate students in Barasat Government College. He completed his PGDEn in environment management from IISWBM in 1998. He joined as a Research Associate in the Department of Human Engineering and Safety in Agriculture (HESA) in Central institute of Agricultural Engineering (CIAE) Bhopal in 1999. He had undertaken assignments like execution of different ICAR projects, making action plan report on anthropometric survey of agricultural workers, imparting training to scientist of other organisation, setting of ergonomics lab etc. He completed his DIH in industrial hygiene from Annamali University in 2001. In April 2002 he joined as a Tutor/lecturer in the Department of Physiology in Mata Gujri Memorial Medical College Kishanganj, Bihar and served there till April 2005. Here he deciphered lecture & took practical classes on different topics of physiology, conducted 1st professional M.B.B.S practical examination & internal theory & practical examinations of the department.

He joined National Institute of Miners' Health on 3rd May 2005 as a Research Officer Hygiene Department and took several assignments given to him by Director and then Senior Research Officer. He was confirmed and promoted to the rank of Senior Research Officer on 17.03.2010. The work assignments under taken by him are as a Senior Research Officer and Hygiene Department in-charge are as follows:

- Coordinate, manage and supervise different research and clientele consultancy projects. Manage research team by assigning work to subordinates and coordinate the project for early completion.
- Prepare reports of institute for Ministry of Mine as and when assigned by Director & Assistant Director. He use to prepare and provide public information under RTI Act 2005 as an Assistant Public Information Officer of the institute till 08.07.2010.
- He manages research activities, co-ordinate purchase and maintenance of different instruments of various projects in the department and assign research work to departmental staff etc.
- He has guided an IIT Kharagpur integrated M.Tech student for conducting whole body vibration studies in Kamptee coal mine of Western Coal Field Limited for B.Tech project dissertation.
- He has organised the first Workshop on "Hazard Monitoring in Mines Vis-á-vis Recommendation of 10th Safety conference" along with all staffs, Assistant Director and Director of the institute.